

Become a member and the remaining lectures are free.

Victorian Lecture Series

Rockwood Museum

Bessie's Parlor

2:00 pm-3:00 pm

(Sunday afternoons)

Victorian Jewelry

September 18, 2011

Thomas Tear, local author and Victorian era collector, will present "Cameo Appearances." On display will be selected pieces of museum quality Cameos, Victorian Hair Work Jewelry, Portrait and Mourning Jewelry. Thomas will discuss how the jewelry was made and worn.

Mourning Art, Symbols and Spirits

October 16, 2011

Philip Nord, Rockwood Museum Director, will share some of the "close encounters" he has experienced at Rockwood. Rockwood docents will explain some of the symbolism related to mourning and death during the Victorian period.

History of Philadelphia Pike

November 13, 2011

New Castle County Councilman John Cartier, serving the 8th district in the eastern Brandywine Hundred, will narrate his PowerPoint presentation on the historic Philadelphia Pike. His presentation celebrates and explores this scenic and historic pathway that links the earliest communities of the Brandywine Hundred overlooking the mighty Delaware River.

Reservations required—302-762-2075 or info@friendsofrockwood.org

Price: $10.00 per lecture for non-members

Free for Friends of Rockwood members

Seating is Limited!

Light refreshments and a tour of the museum to follow each lecture.